SOUTH-CAROLINA.

IN the COMMONS HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY, the 30th Day of October, 1772.

ORDERED,

THAT the Report of the Committee on Grievances, as agreed to by the House this Day, be printed and made public.

By Order of the House,
THOMAS FARR, jun. Clerk.

The COMMITTEE on GRIEVANCES

REPORT,

THAT they have considered the several Matters referred to them the 22d and 24th Instant, by the House; and tho' the Committee are of Opinion, That the Governor's calling the Assembly to Beaufort, keeping them there three Days, without permitting them to do any Business, and proroguing them on the very Day, that by Law, was the last that the General Assembly could be discontinued, were such Measures as call for the utmost Resentment of this House, and would well justify their coming immediately to a Resolution to do no Business with his Excellency, until he had given them Satisfaction in the Premises: Yet, as the People have been long deprived of the Benefit of Representation, and his Majesty's Service, and the Interest of the Colony, require the immediate Sitting and Proceeding of the General Assembly on the arduous Affairs of our Country; the Committee therefore recommend, that the House do not carry Matters to that Extremity, but that they enter into the following Resolutions:

RESOLVED,

THAT as this House did not exist when his Excellency formed his Plan of calling the General Assembly to Beaufort, his Excellency's Proceeding seem to be founded upon his Ill-Will to the Body of the Freemen of this Province, inasmuch as he thereby shewed his Purpose of injuring and affronting whomsoever the Freeholders of the Colony should chuse to represent them.

RESOLVED,

THAT his Excellency's calling the General Assembly to Beaufort, a Place very distant from Charles-Town, where such Assemblies have always been held, (except when malignant and contagious Disorders rage therein) where all the Public Offices and Records are kept, at a Time highly dangerous to the Health, and inconvenient to the private Affairs of the Members, was a most unprecedented Oppression, and an unwarrantable Abuse of a Royal Prerogative, which hath never been questioned by the People of this Colony.

RESOLVED,

THAT the Governor's keeping at Beaufort, the fullest House, that ever met at the Beginning of any Session, three Days before he would receive them with their Speaker, and then immediately proroguing them, was adding Insult to Injury, and plainly manifested his Contempt of the People's Representatives.

RESOLVED,

THAT his Excellency's proroguing the General Assembly, without suffering them to sit one Moment as a Legislative Body, was at least an Evasion, if not a direct Violation of the Election Law, which enacts, That the Sitting and Holding of General Assemblies shall not be discontinued or intermitted above Six Months; that Time being entirely expired, when his Excellency prorogued the House.

YOUR COMMITTEE recommend, that the Agent be ordered to make the strongest Representations to his Majesty, of the arbitrary and oppressive Proceedings of the Governor, and to use his utmost Endeavours to procure the Removal of his Excellency from this Government, or such other Marks of his Majesty's Royal Displeasure, as may prevent Governors for the future from thus oppressing the People, by abusing those Prerogatives which were intended for their Benefit.

AND, as his Excellency's Speech at Beaufort, seems wholly calculated to throw the Blame of all the Inconveniences which the Public labours under, upon former Houses of Assembly, and his Charges having been sufficently confuted by them, it is unnecessary to have their Conduct vindicated by this House.

The third of September passed by Prince Rupert's bay, Dominica, and saw three brigs laying at anchor safe; but at Roseau, 17 vessels were lost; at Basseterre, Guadaloup, saw five sail ashore; a schooner from Virginia with corn was arrived at St Eustatia, selling at ten bitts per bushel; three vessels were lost at St. Martin's, belonging to the eastward, sails and rigging saved; two other brigs got into Simpson's bay, and one of them purchased the masts, sails and rigging, to refit his vessel, for 250 half joes."

Charles-Town, October 1, 1774.

THE FIRE-MASTERS, GIVE NOTICE,

THAT, in consequence of the great neglect of many of the inhabitants of Charles-Town, in providing buckets and ladders, keeping their chimnies swept clean, and of observing many other directions, required by the laws now in force, wherein the safety and interest of the whole community are nearly concerned, they are determined to carry the said laws strictly into execution: And that none may plead ignorance, the following abstracts are now published for their information, which the fire-masters request all persons concerned strictly to observe.

GABRIEL MANIGAULT,
GEORGE SHEED,
JOHN EDWARDS,
} Fire-Masters.

It is enacted, that no person or persons whatsoever in Charles-Town shall be permitted to keep any straw or hay in his, her, or their dwelling-house or kitchen, or out-house, that is joining to his, her, or their dwelling-house, on the penalty of the forfeiture of ten pounds for every such offence.

It is enacted, that every owner or tenant of every dwelling-house in Charles-Town shall provide a leathern bucket of six quarts at least, for every fire hearth in such dwelling-house, one fourth part of the whole to be sent to the managers of the fire engines; they are also to provide one ladder of a convenient length for each dwelling-house: Which buckets and ladders are to be always ready in case of fire, on pain of forfeiting the sum of ten pounds; also, a penalty of thirty shillings for every bucket withheld, or refused in time of fire, and if any buckets shall be lost at such time, the fire-masters are to supply the owners with others in the room of them.

The charge of providing buckets and ladders is to be borne and paid by the landlords and owners of houses; but as the said charges may be often paid by the tenant in possession, who is made liable in case of neglect, it is lawful for such tenant to deduct so much out of his rent as he shall from time to time expend in providing buckets and ladders.

It shall be lawful for the fire-masters to enter into the houses, out-houses, stables and yards, of every owner or tenant, to enquire if they are provided with buckets and ladders; and also to view, search and examine, if any quantities of hay, straw, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, oil, tallow, sulphurous or combustible matters are lodged in any place within the same, which may be in danger of taking fire; and if they find there is danger, it is lawful for them, after having admonished the owner of such house or houses, to remove such combustible matter (in case of refusing or neglecting to remove the same) at the charge of the owner. All persons who shall suffer their chimnies to take fire, and blaze out at the top, shall forfeit the sum of five pounds.

Upon any alarm in the night time, every inhabitant is to repair to the place where the fire is, with his arms, under the penalty of forty shillings, and shall lodge them in such place, near the fire, as shall be appointed by the fire-masters, and the commander of the watch is to order a party of the watch to guard the same. All goods and effects removed, are directed to be carried to the place where the arms are directed to be lodged and guarded. The constables are to appear with their staves, and assist in guarding the said goods and effects, till removed to some other place of safety, under the penalty of five pounds. Any person that embezzles any goods or effects, are to be pilloried, have their ears cut off, and forfeit four times the value thereof.

The fire-masters are impowered to command any person or persons whatsoever, to aid and assist in pulling down houses or buildings, for extinguishing of fires, to the utmost of their strength, power and ability; and in case of refusal, if a white person, he shall forfeit five pounds, and if a slave, he shall be publicly whipped. All persons who shall do or execute any thing in obedience to the fire-masters, are indemnified against all persons whatsoever.

Remarkable or considerable services, in preventing or extinguishing fires, are to be rewarded by the fire-masters; and in case any person shall be wounded, maimed, or disabled, in endeavouring to prevent or extinguish fire, a reasonable allowance, maintainance, or provision will be made for such persons.

The masters or managers of the engines may command any person or persons whatsoever that shall be nearest at hand, when any fire breaks out, to aid and assist in conveying the engines to the place where the fire shall be. A white person refusing shall forfeit forty shillings, and a slave is to be publicly whipped. A reward of forty shillings to every white person, and twenty shillings to every slave, to be paid to those who carry the first engine to the place where the fire first breaks out.

N. B. Those who have lost buckets, are desired to apply to Mr. MANIGAULT.
